

Small luxury hotel opened in the country field

Newlyweds are most make use of them

Such accommodations have a maximum of 40 rooms and operate in harmony with nature.

Costa Rica has become a very tempting for small luxury hotels. It is nature that combine accommodations with high standards of quality based on sustainable development.

This type of accommodation ensures visitors are not just a privileged place for your vacation, but also the opportunity to participate in community development by generating jobs in your area.

The rooms have been designed to offer maximum comfort to the guest. Were adapted to comply with existing trees, provide hot water heating system by solar panels and greywater are treated and reused for irrigation of green areas, among other purposes.

These hotels are frequented by people who come here on honeymoon travel, adventure programs, plans for groups, families and contact with nature.

” Our guests come especially from the U.S. and according to the season we have many local visitors. Vacationers are middle class and older and mostly come to celebrate special occasions, “said William Viquez , manager of the Hotel Villas Caletas.

Customers look at these hotels and exclusive personal service. As a result, they can enjoy a more calm and relaxed, generally opposite to that of a great hosting site .

These small luxury hotels have a maximum of 40 rooms equipped with sophisticated tools but friendly environment, providing customer privacy and warmth to make your vacation a pleasant experience.

Being small, these accommodations ensure greater enjoyment of the holiday, since customers are few and may well have all the facilities of a more private and personal, said Fabian Palma, general manager of Hotel Arenas del Mar Beach & Nature Resort.

Hosting packages range from $ 650 to $ 450 per couple, depending on the hotel and include four nights lodging, a personalized welcome, breakfast, massages and even private dining.

“These accommodations are equipped with massage services. Also, all rooms have free wireless Internet, fully equipped mini-bars, safes, cable TV, ceiling fans and telephones with direct access to international calls, “said general manager Marco Montoya Hotel Grano de Oro.

An establishment with the same court in the country will be opened by the chain of Asian capital , SUU Hotels in Manuel Antonio National Park .

This hotel will have 28 rooms and is the second to develop the company in Costa Rica.

” The project seeks to privilege a harmonious design with nature , cooking with local organic products , personalized services and ecological adventures , “he added Cenk Kinay , founder and CEO of SUU Hotels.

The establishment will lodge in different categories, six rooms incorporate luxury amenities, nine are junior suites.